PREMIER TENNIS TOUR - MATRIX TRAINING COMPETITION

There will be a weekend of training competition. The format will be a round robin of point's situation, such as, a tie break tournament or short sets with no ad.

The format can vary from time to time.

The idea is to group participants of similar level, for up to two hours, to train on competitive situations. These events will not contribute to the ZONE ranking.

The cost to participate in these training events is $50 per player. Sign up will be done through the PTT website, NOT through UTR site. The participation list will be open on Monday the week of the event and will close on Thursday at noon time.

There will be prize money for the champion and runner up. The amount will depend on the number of participants. There will be a limited number of participants. TBA.
